

Reporting

Reporting is automated and must comply with ASTM D4945 and/or ISO9000.

Any data adjustments applied after completion of the testing must be detailed and justified.

The Report must include copies of the signed field sheets for reference.

Any engineering interpretation of the data must be reported in a separate section to the factual test report.

Reports are to include separate factual and interpretative components.